LOCAL EXPERTISE, REAL RESULTS

We have been operating in Fuerteventura's real estate market for over ten years, giving us in-depth knowledge of every corner of the island — from the most renowned areas to the up-and-coming neighbourhoods.

Our definition of success is based on the complete satisfaction of both parties — buyers and sellers — ensuring a transparent, secure, and stress-free experience.

OUR POLICY

Our policy is built on a clear commitment: providing comprehensive, personalised, and reliable support to both buyers and sellers.

We guide each client through every stage of the real estate process, from A to Z, from obtaining the NIE to rental management after the purchase.

With the support of our established network of local professionals — including notaries, legal advisors and technicians — we ensure a safe, seamless, and hassle-free experience for both parties involved.

SELLING STRATEGY: PLATFORMS

Our selling strategy is designed to ensure maximum visibility for your property.

We advertise listings on the main international portals, including Idealista, ThinkSpain, A Place in the Sun, and many others, using premium features such as highlighted listings and targeted promotions to make every property stand out.

Speaking of “A Place in the Sun”, we have appeared on the program many times, successfully selling our own properties through the show, demonstrating the effectiveness of our targeted international approach.

SELLING STRATEGY: SOCIAL MEDIAS

We fully leverage the power of social media, including Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, and YouTube, to maximize exposure for our clients' properties.

Through targeted ads and strategic promotions, we reach the right audience and deliver tangible results.

We are the agency with the largest Instagram following on the entire island and post daily content, keeping our audience highly engaged and attentive.

SELLING STRATEGY: WEBSITE

Our website, constantly updated, showcases all our available properties and ensures maximum visibility.

We regularly update listings and promote them through Google Ads, as well as sending weekly newsletters to our loyal clients, ensuring every opportunity reaches the right audience.

For new developments or luxury villas, we created dedicated landing pages, designed to showcase each property at its best and capture the attention of potential buyers.

SELLING STRATEGY: TRADE FAIRS

We don't wait for buyers to land in Fuerteventura: we go to them.

In today's real estate market, having a web presence is essential, but it is not enough to maximize the value of your property. The real difference lies in proactivity.

Golden House adopts a strategic "acquisition at the source" approach. We regularly exhibit at leading International Real Estate Fairs (across the UK, Germany, Italy, and Northern Europe). This allows us to intercept buyers and investors before they even step foot on the island.

TRANSPARENCY

No hidden costs, no surprises: we ensure complete transparency from the very first contact.

Sellers are always clearly and fully informed about all taxes and fees associated with the sale, allowing them to make confident, well-informed decisions.

We also ensure transparency during property viewings: each appointment is communicated in advance, and after the visit we provide detailed feedback on the outcome, so sellers are always fully aware of how the process is progressing.

INTERNATIONAL APPROACH

We are specialists in serving international clients, fluent in the main European languages and experienced in understanding the needs of buyers and investors from different countries.

Thanks to Fuerteventura's steady influx of tourists, our clientele changes weekly, giving us extensive experience in dealing with people from diverse cultures, expectations, and requirements.

A BRAND BUILT ON SATISFACTION

Our success is measured by our clients’ satisfaction. Every sale, purchase, and rental is managed with the goal of exceeding expectations, creating a positive and stress-free experience.

The trust our clients place in us is the foundation of our brand and drives us to continuously improve our services.

Many of our new clients come through referrals and recommendations, a clear testament to the quality and reliability we deliver.
